BARON CLASS OF '28

JUNIORS DEKALB HIGH SCHOOL

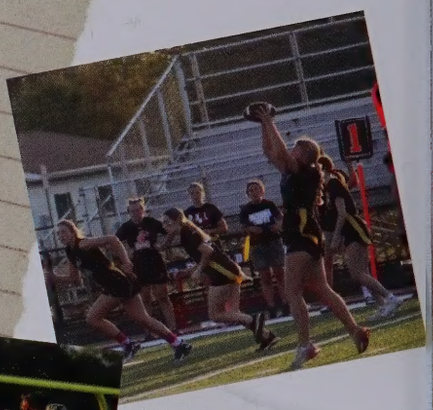
SENIORS OUT 2025

Class Shirt Friday

For Class Shirt Friday, each grade had a restaurant themed shirt with the theme of "Leave No Crumbs" on the front of every shirt created by Student Government. Freshmen had Dunkin'. Sophomores had Jimmy Johns, Juniors had IHOP, and Seniors had In-N-Out.

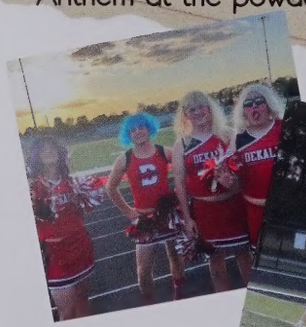
Powderpuff

Seniors win! 12-6



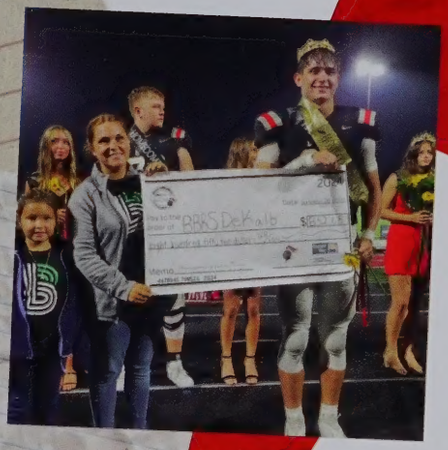
This year for powderpuff and homecoming for cause. Student Government decided to do tailgating before the powderpuff game instead of the bonfire! DeKalb High School students were able to come before powderpuff began to play carnival games and enjoy a slice of pizza and Kona Ice.

Dynamix sang the National Anthem at the powderpuff game.

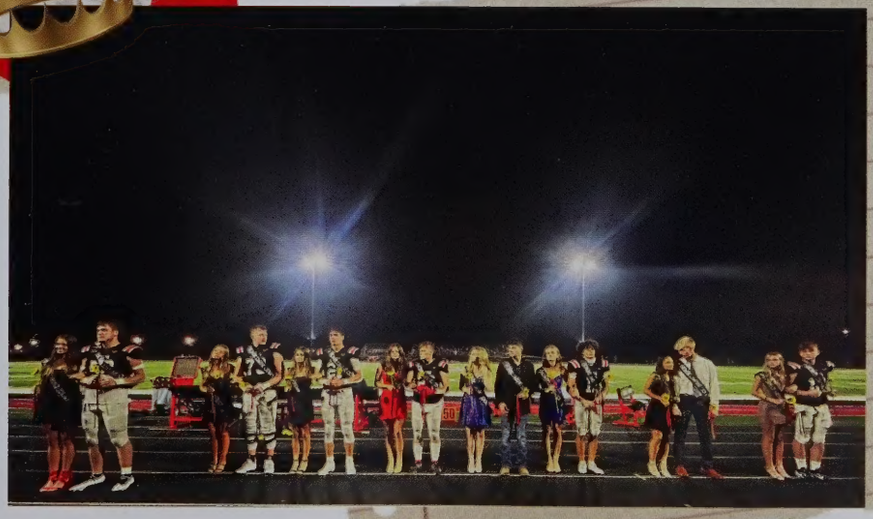


Homecoming court

Paige Storck and Caiden Hinkle were crowned Homecoming King & Queen by last years king and queen Will Haupert and Mallory Eltzroth. Paige Storck donated her portion to Warm a Heart in Waterloo and Caiden Hinkle donated his portion to the Big Brothers Big Sisters of DeKalb County.



The 2024 Homecoming court senior runner-ups were Ashley Cox, Nicholas Ley, Piersten Burley, Maximus Brockhouse, Sydney Shambaugh, Caiden Hinkle, Paige Storck, Graham Blythe, Elizabeth Buchs, and Cord Akey. For the junior class, Xavier Bell and Claire Woodcox. The sophomores, Jacy Stokes and Corbin Smith. For the freshmen, Ellington Sparkman and Owen Schackow.



DeKalb county Free Fall Fair

The DeKalb County Free Fall Fair takes place in Auburn, Indiana every year in late September. During this week, many students ride exciting rides, eat a lot of tasty food, play challenging games, show animals, and more.

Bah, Humbug!

DeKalb High School's winter musical, Bah Humbug was a success . In this story Charlie Holbrook playing Ebeneezer Scrooge takes a walk through his life past, present, and future guided by three spirits played by Patrick Lothamer, Kaden Timberlin, and Wyatt Knepper. Brooke Culler was a crowd favorite while performing her solo " One Last Christmas". Musical numbers "Dead and Buried" preformed by Jon Ballard, Silas Refner, Taylor Reeves and the ensemble was a smash hit. Including Molly Reasner's number "Chains", and Wyatt Knepper's number "Life Was Meant to Live". This full cast of roughly 47 had only 28 days to pull off this production, and they did just that. Congratulations to everyone involved in Bah Humbug.

Family, Career, and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA)

The FCCLA spent the year learning many different skills and projects. They learned crochet and knitting, chocolate making, and how to use these skills in a buisness format. We spent time learning about different cultural foods and the importantance of traditions from those countries. They made thank you gifts for a DHS staff and had a braceltt fundraiser. The money made from the fundraiser will help fun projects and food for the FCS classroom.

Marching Band

The DeKalb Baron Brigade had multiple first place wins at competitions and made it back to the ISSMA State Finals for the first time since 2017. The show is titled Coming Home, and begins in the middle of your life's story. It explores that you can feel good, scary, exciting, anxious, or even angry when you don't feel comfortable in a new place.

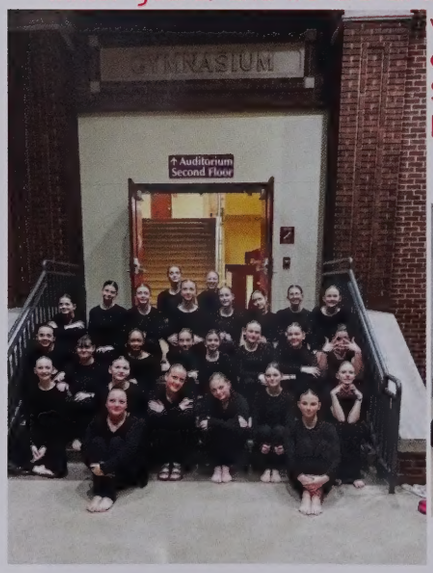
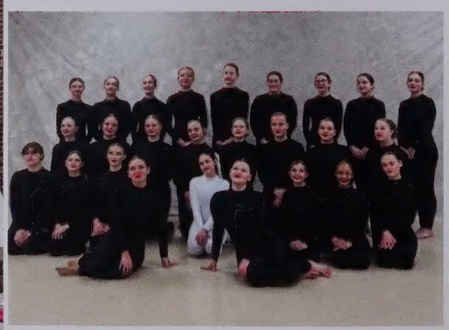
Pit Band:

Color Guard:

"Highlights from our winter season would be how much time and work we put into this, we have worked so hard to get us back to a place where we are able to get the stuff we need and have the money for it. We placed 2nd at state for the first time in DeKalb history for winter guard, and we are all so thankful for that opportunity. We would not be able to do all this without our amazing coaches , Brittany Satterwaite, Devin Hairston, and Lauren Harper." -Mya Thompson





azz Band:

This past jazz season has been the best I've xperienced! Mr. Adamisin's music choices his year has made this past season emorable. We always had something that ept us entertained and improving,whether it as a jazz classic, video game music, or a assical song; we were always having fun laying as an ensemble. The jazz program ill only continue to grow as the Baron rigade continues to thrive." -Lydia Hallman

Winter Drumline:

Despite the long rehearsals, the constant petition, and the great exhaustion, we ushed through. We came together and ushed down challenges to produce our ow, Intergalactic Planetary. This drumline ason was entirely possible by our amazing structors, designers, and our teammates. e congratulate all of our seniors who will moving on and thank you all for making a fantastic season." -Jacob Kurtz

Varsity Girls Volleyball

The Barons had the most successful season they have had in a decade. Coach Pfost credits this success to the experience from the returning players and the leadership of the seniors. "The team was coachable and put in the time, effort and thought necessary for a 20 win season" says coach Pfost. The Barons finished 4th in the NE8 conference and were 20-11 overall.

JV Boys Basketball

With the absence of a freshman team, this year's JV team was over half freshman which resulted in many tough learning experiences early in the season. However, this group stayed the course and kept working and continued improving day after day. The team rallied and played much better after Christmas Break, going over .500 over the last 15 games including big wins over East Noble and Garrett. A great season of improvement and learning that will hopefully continue to build going into next season!

Varsity Boys Basketball

Coach Beasley reports that this season was led by our two veteran seniors, Caiden Hinkle and Will Weber. The young Baron team battled and competed with determination and perseverance against many tough teams. Although the record may not show it, our guys competed well, and with most games coming down to the final minutes of the buzzer.

Highlights of the year include: Beating Northrop in the season opener; Winning 2 out of 3 games in the Shenandoah Holiday Tournament; Beating a good Huntington North on the road for a conference win; and taking down a solid Heritage team at our last home game of the season.

Season Recap

The DeKalb Lady Gymnasts ended their season with many victories. As one of the smaller teams in the area, they beat teams twice their size. Placing 2nd at the Plymouth Invitational and 3rd at the Lakeland Invitational, each gymnast broke their personal records multiple times throughout the season. They placed 4th as a team at the Sectional Championship, sending two individuals to the Regional Competition. With a team full of seniors, the gymnasts believe they ended the season with a bang!

Thanks for the Memories, Barons!

The 2025 Yearbook Staff put together a great yearbook for you this year. Our theme was " Our Story: A Time to Remember," and every page included elements of our theme with graphics and colors. We chose a scrapbooking element to help tie that theme into the different pages from the titles of pages, the page number folios, to other graphic scrapbook elements. The staff worked diligently to cover each event, but we couldn't do it without the help of players, coaches, club members, students, and parents who helped us with quotes or coverage. In particular, we owe a great deal of thanks to Laura Pentecost who generously contributed awesome photos for our sports section. One of our goals was to include everyone in the book 3 times; however, some students chose not to participate. Thank you to all who gave quotes, or photos for various features of the book.

Special thanks to Lifetouch representatives: Michelle Hollandsworth, Ann Browder, and Kelli Koomler. They helped with various aspects of the book and supporting Mrs. Miller and the Yearbook Staff.

Special thanks to Mrs. Miller for being a great advisor and helping us with making a great book. We especially appreciated the goodies you provided and the mini- celebrations for meeting deadlines and goals.

We worked many hours both in and out of school, and we are proud of the book. If you appear on a page but were not properly indexed, we apologize. This is a student publication, so we apologize for any error that may have been overlooked.
